O R D E R

In this petition for a certiorari, the petitioner calls in question the validity of an endorsement dated 6.2.92 whereby it was called upon to produce its regular books of account along with purchase bills in respect of Netlon purchases made by him to verify the nature and description of the transactions.

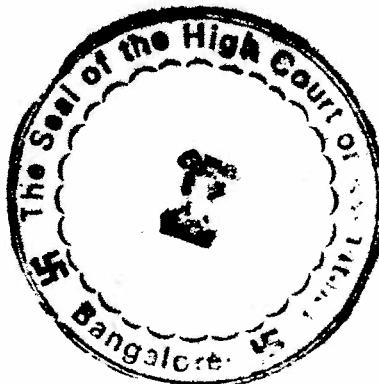

2. No one has appeared on behalf of the petitioner, today.

3. Mr. Shivayogi Swamy, learned Govt. Pleader for the respondents submits that the endorsement in question was followed by another endorsement dated 20.4.92 whereby the petitioner was asked to collect the requisite number of 'C' forms after producing the purchase bills. He further submits that in the light of the subsequent endorsement, nothing further survives for consideration in this petition and that the petitioner is at liberty to approach the authorities for the issue of 'C' forms in which event, his request shall be considered in accordance with law.

4. Recording the submission made at the Bar, this writ petition is disposed of reserving liberty for the petitioner to approach the authorities concerned for the issue of 'C' forms in accordance with the subsequent endorsement referred to above. No costs.
